

We obtained sponsorship from the following bodies (copies of applications available to future IVFDF committees on request):

Cambridge City Council Community and Leisure fund

Applied: November 2004

Amount: £638.05

Money for: “increasing access for all city residents to cultural and leisure activities, which will increase their health, well-being, confidence and skills”

Spent on: local advertising

Had to provide: Constitution

Detailed budget of planned spending

Research proving that we met the criteria quoted above

Awards for All

Applied: June 2005

Amount: £3,400

Money for: Developing local clubs, increasing participation, skills and quality of life

Spent on: Advertising, workshops, improvements in acoustics, lighting and amplification in main halls

Had to provide: evidence of the difference that the grant would make

Detailed budget of planned spending

Evidence of meeting aims of the organisation

Evidence of our own contribution to the festival

Senior contact and main contact within the committee

Estimates for number of people in different categories who would benefit from the festival

Independent referee

Constitution and budget

University of Cambridge Active Community Fund

Applied: Start of term Oct 2005

Amount: £175

Money for: enabling students and staff of the university to undertake projects as volunteers

Spent on: free tickets for student stewards

Had to provide: budget for spending grant

Details of who benefitted from volunteering and how

Royal Scottish Country Dance Society

Applied:

Amount: £350

Money for: Scottish dance

Spent on: Bringing a band down from Scotland and extending their playing time

Private donor

£500 for hiring a Scottish band for the Scottish dance