Questions you didn't know you had...

What is this IVFDF thing anyway?

IVFDF (usually pronounced iv-diff, in case you were wondering) is the longest continuously running folk festival in the country. Each year a different university town hosts a weekend of pretty much non-stop dancing, music and general jumping around.

Who goes to IVFDF?

This is nominally a student event, but previous festivals have been enjoyed by large numbers of ex-students, random folkies, passing locals and bribed friends or partners of enthusiastic dancers. Basically everyone is welcome, but expect student levels of energy and quality of accommodation!

What if I don't want to come to the whole festival?

A full weekend ticket gives you the right to stay from Friday evening until the end of the survivors' ceilidh on Sunday afternoon, including sleeping on the floor of the school. If that's a bit much, individual tickets are available for different days, parts of days or workshops: see price list for full details.

How do I get a ticket?

The application form is on the back of this flyer. "Waged" and "Unwaged" should be fairly selfexplanatory; student bursaries etc. do not count as a wage. Full weekend tickets will cost £2 less if you book before the 31st of January 2006.Tickets will also be available from Reception throughout the festival, if you just want to turn up on the day.

Getting there

The festival will be held at the Netherhall Upper School and Sixth Form College on Queen Edith's Way, in the South East of Cambridge, with some events in the Lower School across the road.

By car: Leave the M11 at Junction 11, follow signs to Cambridge on the A1309. Go straight on for a mile and a half, and turn right at a set of traffic lights onto Long Road, signposted "Ring Road". Drive straight on for 2 miles, and Netherhall Upper School is on your right.

By train: Once you're at Cambridge Station the Citi 1 or Citi 3 bus (towards Cherry Hinton) will get you to within easy walking distance of the school. Get off on Cherry Hinton Road, just past Cherry Hinton Hall. Follow the bus to the traffic lights, then Queen Edith's Way is the road to your right. Remember to check the website for route changes!

By coach or bus: Get to Drummer Street bus station, then catch the Citi 2 which goes past the school, or the Citi 1 or Citi 3 as above.

By plane (it has been done before!): There are regular trains and coaches from Stansted Airport.
